FISH GETS IN HIS RESOLUTION

Asking for Investigation of Illinois Central.

Directors Will Meet Next Week When Answers to Fish's Inquiries Will Be Made.

SEQUEL TO MEETING LAST WEEK

New York, Sept. 5.—The personal encounter between former President Stuyvesant Fish and President James T. Harahan, of the Illinois Central railroad, which took place last week and its sequel today at a meeting of the board, when Mr. Fish again presented the set of resolutions which brought on the fluster bout between him and Mr. Harahan.

The board, it was announced afterwards, adopted the Fish resolutions with some slight modifications. Officials of the company, however, were reticent and declined to divulge what took place at the meeting.

The directors present were: Harahan, Fish, Hackstaff, Auchincloss, Golet, Cutting, Peabody, Beach and Vanderbilt. When Mr. Fish left the meeting he declined to say anything as to the nature of the business which had been transacted.

It was learned that Mr. Fish's resolutions contained rather serious charges against the present management and the demand that they be answered. The resolution alleged that the affairs of the Illinois Central were virtually being conducted from 120 Broadway, where are located the offices of the Union Pacific railroad and E. H. Harriman.

The resolutions likewise contained clauses questioning the legitimacy of certain financial transactions in which the Illinois Central had been engaged.

With the adoption of the resolutions today it was understood that some answer would be prepared by the management and submitted to the meeting of the directors to be held next Wednesday.

At the offices of the company it was stated that no information regarding the meeting would be given out. Mr. Fish declined to make any statement regarding what had taken place.

President Harahan could not be found after the adjournment.

According to a statement given out by the president's secretary after his return to Chicago last week, the resolution offered by Mr. Fish at that time brought on the clash between Fish and Harahan asked for certain information regarding changes in the company's methods of accounting and was the subject of discussion today, it was said.

It is also said that the resolutions submitted today still express Mr. Fish's intention and views of the present management of the road in most vigorous terms, although the stip was removed.

COHANKUS CO. SUE FOR $10,000 DAMAGES.

Attorneys Cripe & Ross will this afternoon file suit in circuit court for J. M. Hutchinson against the Cohankus Manufacturing company for $10,000 for the loss of his right hand and forearm. The plaintiff was employed by the defendant on July 24 as a machine tender. He was inexperienced and alleges that the defendant knew it, yet failed to acquaint him with the dangers of certain machines he had to keep in shape. One machine became clogged with cotton, which might either break the machine or set fire to cotton being spun through it. He attempted to remove the clogged cotton when his right hand was drawn into the teeth. So badly mangled was the hand and forearm that amputation at the elbow was necessary.

WANT TWO CENT RATE.

Kansas Commission Orders Companies to Put Rate in Force Oct. 1.

Topeka, Kas., Sept. 5.—The board of railroad commission this afternoon ordered railroads to put in flat 2-cent rates on or before October 1st. The railroads have not made and definite announcement of contemplated action, but it is expected that they will not recognize the order until the question is settled in some of the other states in which it is pending.

CARPENTERS WILL PUSH THEIR FIGHT

Encouraged by Yesterday's Success Assume Aggressive.

Believe That "Open Shop" Contractors Will Soon Sign and End Long Drawn-out Fight.

RUDD SIGNS UNION CONTRACT.

Union carpenters are jubilant over prospects to win out in their demands for better wages, and are meeting today formulating plans for further pushing their fight. They are sanguine for the signatures of eight "open shop" contractors, and hope to announce a settlement of the three months' strike this week.

"We do not care to give out a list of union contractors," stated a committee man this morning. "We will say that yesterday's demonstration of solid unionism caused one contractor to come across. He is Mr. W. T. Rudd. At present there are four union contractors employing union men exclusively and only eight standing out against us. Of these several are big contractors, but with only twelve non-union men at work for them, they may hope to do little towards their work."

In nearly every instance the heaviest contractors are working jobs on limitation contracts, and will have to complete the work within the specified time. Since the 45 non-union carpenters joined yesterday, several more have been added to the ranks, and slowly but surely the union is being strengthened.

Jack Cole, contractor, also signed the scale with the carpenters' union this morning. Union officials say they are highly pleased with the situation today.

DR. MURRELL MAY BRING DAMAGE SUIT

It is rumored on the streets that Dr. D. G. Murrell, owner of the wrecked American Express company building, will sue for damages if a compromise is not offered. It is known that he has been in consultation with his attorneys, but the result of his conference is not made known. Rumors are said to come from inside sources, however.

WISE ELEPHANT RESCUES MAN. Lifts Locomotive With Trunk While Other Animals Put Out Fire.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 5.—Baell, the mother of Jumbo, an elephant over 20 years of age, saved the life of a man at Wheeling, W. Va., today. A freight train was wrecked near Morgantown, the engineer being caught under the locomotive. The wreck caught fire, and it appeared as if the man was doomed. The sections following the wrecked train, having aboard a circus, came up, and Baell lifted the wrecked locomotive with her trunk from the body of the engineer. Eight other elephants filled their trunks with river water and extinguished the burning cars.

Clash Believed Imminent Between China and Japan

Peking, Sept. 5.—Rather than permit Japan to establish title to the immensely rich Kwanto region, China is prepared to fight and no secret is made of the fact. Chinese statesmen and military leaders consider the period of Japan's exhaustion following the struggle with Russia a favorable one to wipe out old scores with the islanders. Foreign diplomats agree Chinese are not bluffing and they regard a clash imminent.

The number of Chinese troops is increasing daily in Kwanto, the territory in dispute between China and Japan. The Chinese commander has warned the Japanese commander that he must desist from any attempt at administration and withdraw immediately.

CAN FISCAL COURT RESTRICT CORONER?

Question will be Looked into by County Attorney Barkley.

LAGERWALL ABLE TO LEAVE HOSPITAL

Mr. A. F. Lagerwall, agent for the American Express company, who was caught under the falling express company building Monday afternoon, and pinioned for three hours under tons of debris, was removed from Riverside hospital to his home this morning in the Guy Nance ambulance. He is sorely bruised and is suffering from kidney trouble. Mr. Lagerwall when pinioned beneath the mass of brick and heavy timbers lay on two bricks. The bricks pressed into his back as the weight of the mass settled upon him, and his condition is still serious. He had improved, however, sufficiently to be removed this morning.

"I was not present when fiscal court passed on the coroner matter," he explained. "The authority of any coroner is extensive, and is prescribed by the statutes. I am not very familiar with it, but will look carefully into the matter before court meets again."

Coroner Eaker was very much worked up yesterday. He stated that he held inquests and inquisitions where he thought them necessary, and was not under the impression that he should have consulted any one.

EXPECTED DIVORCE WAS NOT GRANTED

Owensboro, Ky., Sept. 5.—Circuit court devoted most of the day with bigamy. The jury deliberated but a short time when a verdict of guilty and fixing his punishment at three years in the penitentiary was returned.

The name of the second wife is Sarah Elizabeth Jones, whom he married in 1907, and in 1905 he was married to Rosa Nelson. He had sued for a divorce and believed it was

SUPPORT FAMILY OR GO TO JAIL

Judge Lightfoot Gives Orders to Father of a Destitute Family.

S. W. Henderson, the shantyboater, who was summoned by Humane Officer Jap Toner to appear before Judge Lightfoot and show cause why he did not properly support his family, was yesterday released by the court on the promise that he would stay sober and properly feed and clothe his family.

Henderson is the step-father of Hazel Harris, the ten-year-old girl that died on the shantyboat last week and was buried by the coroner. The humane officers who were sent to investigate the condition of the family says that there are four other stepchildren of Henderson on the boat, the eldest a girl of thirteen, that are almost starved and with scarcely any clothing at all. The humane officer could not bring them to the city on account of their not having sufficient clothing to wear.

Mr. Toner found that the children are heirs to a small estate at Owensboro, and the Central Trust company of that city as their guardian pays the mother $80 a year for their support. This money he says is squandered by their mother and stepfather for whisky.

Judge Lightfoot has instructed Mr. Toner to keep a watch on Henderson and if he does not provide for his family he will be rearrested and forced to work.

CONVENTION CALLED IN WASHINGTON COUNTY.

Springfield, Ky., Sept. 5.—The Republican executive committee of Washington county has called a mass convention to be held here September 14 to nominate a candidate to represent Washington county in the next general assembly. Hon. W. C. McChord is the Democratic nominee.

Boyle Opens Saloon.

Boyle opened his saloon this afternoon and is ready for business again. When he closed two weeks ago his liquor license was transferred in county court to John Lindenfield. This afternoon Lindenfield transferred the license back to Boyle, Lindenfield was granted a city license by the council Tuesday night, but it would not be legally a license before aldermen had acted. Lindenfield will ask the council for a refund of the money deposited with his application.

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 5.—The monument to the memory of the late President McKinley, erected on Niagara Square by the state of New York at a cost of a million dollars, was dedicated today by Governor Hughes and other distinguished citizens. Canadian troops participated in the parade. There was a number of addresses by prominent speakers.

BOYLE AGAIN WINS OUT

Judge Reed Decides Amended Ordinance is Defective.

CASES ARE DISMISSED

Minimum Fine Fixed by Ordinance was Again Fixed Too Low.

MECCA OPEN FOR BUSINESS

Again the city license ordinance is found defective, and because it is unconstitutional Circuit Judge Reed dismissed every case where Hugh Boyle, the saloonkeeper, was fined in police court for selling liquor after Mayor Yeiser had revoked his license. Boyle was fined in one case, however, that for selling liquor on Sunday. In this charge he refused to plead, and the court fixed the fine at $50 and costs.

Boyle was charged with keeping his saloon open and selling liquor after he had been fined in police court for selling on Sunday, and the mayor had revoked his license. For each day that he sold after the revocation, a warrant was issued and he was fined in police court. Immediately appeals were taken, and on advice of attorneys, Boyle closed his saloon. This morning in circuit court the cases were called.

"In the commonwealth case, where my client is charged with selling on Sunday, we will enter no plea," stated Attorney Hal S. Corbett, "but in city cases, where he is charged with violating the ordinance, I desire to enter a demurrer as to the ordinance's constitutionality."

Judge Reed permitted the filing of the demurrer, and on hearing argument promptly dismissed the cases.

"Yes, the ordinance is unconstitutional," stated Judge Reed when asked for an expression. "The statutes prescribe that the minimum fine shall not be less than $25, and the ordinance regulating the sale of liquor without a license reads that the fine shall not be less than $20, so you see how it is defective."

Attorney Corbett's Statement.

"I knew all the time this license ordinance the city passed and later amended, was unconstitutional," declared Attorney Hal S. Corbett. With this he produced authority. "The constitution reads that no municipality can fix a fine less than that prescribed by the statutes. The original ordinance fixes the minimum at $10 and when the city attorneys saw it, they made haste to amend. All this time my client had his license revoked by Mayor Yeiser, but was selling. When the ordinance was amended, it was formed by the statutes of 1903; but there was a later one, that of 1906, and it reads that the minimum shall not be less than $25. The ordinance as it stands amended reads $20."

"All these weeks has my client been out of business because of such blunders. Yes, he has got recourse in the courts, but I would not advise it. I think that every city official who had any part in this fight acted in good faith, or thought he did."

Fines against Boyle, which were appealed were $100, assessed by Special Police Judge E. H. Puryear and two fines of $20 and costs each assessed by Special Police Judge E. W. Bradshaw, Jr.

In knocking out the license ordinance, Judge Reed also knocked out Mayor Yeiser's power to revoke a saloon license in case of Sunday violations; but only because the clause

OGS HELP TO SMUGGLE OPIUM.

ustoms Officials Make Unique Discovery Near Blaine, Wash.

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 5.—One of the most clever methods of smuggling silk and opium into the United States from British Columbia yet known as been discovered by customs officers at Blaine, Wash., on the international boundary line. Trained dogs were used to carry on the business, and the customs officers believe that hundreds of pounds of the contraband drug have been brought into this country in that manner. As a result of the discovery by the officers, Thomas Smith is in custody awaiting trial on a charge of smuggling.

The first inkling that dogs were used for smuggling came a few days ago when Officer Lane of the Bellingham station, shot a dog which he saw running through the thick timber near Blaine. The canine was loaded down with a leather saddle in which were found three pounds of opium and a package of silk. Where the dog came from and where he was going are mysteries which the officers at once began to ferret out.

The officers took a coon dog with them to the boundary line where the first canine was seen. For three days they waited before another dog came along with a pack saddle on its back. This time there were three dogs loaded down with the drug. The men let them pass, and then, with the aid of the coon dog, they traced them to an old shack near Blaine. The officers afterward arrested Smith on the charge of smuggling.

The leather saddles were fashioned after those used by the hospital dogs of the Austrian army. It is a mystery how the smugglers obtained the saddles, but it is likely the confederates of the man in jail were well versed in the training of dogs.

FIRE IN HOTEL CAUSES PANIC

Palmer House at Chicago Threatened.

Seven Hundred Guests Scantly Attired Rush Into Streets Carrying Clothes.

COXEY'S ARMY HEADQUARTERS.

Chicago, Sept. 5.—Seven hundred guests of the Palmer House, at State and Monroe streets and Wabash avenue, were thrown into a panic at 11:15 o'clock last night when fire, which threatened to consume the building, broke out in the basement under the Dunlap Hat company's store, 171-173 State street.

Immediately after the blaze was discovered the hotel began to fill with smoke. This warned guests of their danger and in a moment the corridors were filled with frightened men and women, many in scanty attire, who carried such belongings as they could pick up in their arms or in satchels, bags and suit cases.

Elevators in the hotel were kept running and the frightened guests were removed to the lobby and street as quickly as possible. Scores ran crowding down the stairs, and within ten minutes hardly a guest or employee of the hotel was left in it.

The smoke from the fire filled every part of the hotel. The panic on the Wabash avenue side was more pronounced than on the State street side as that part of the hotel is not fire-proof.

The greatest loss through the fire will be sustained by the Shayne company through the smoking of hundreds of valuable furs stored there. The loss to the Dunlap company will also be large, while that to the hotel will be comparatively small.

The fire was wrung out by the department at 11:55 o'clock at which time a number of the guests returned to their rooms. Some parts of the hotel, however, were still filled with smoke and it was difficult for many to reach their rooms.

Among the guests of the hotel who were forced from their rooms by the smoke was General Coxe, leader of the famous "Coxey's Army," whose apartments were on the fourth floor.

Japanese Monroe Doctrine.

Washington, Sept. 5.—Perhaps the feverish activity in the naval and military circles in Japan may not be due to plans for war with the United States, after all. A prominent army officer expresses the opinion that Japan is permitting her people to make show of hostility against this country with which the Japanese government is well known to be on excellent terms, for the well considered purpose of distracting attention from her intention of forcing recognition of her Asiatic "Monroe doctrine."

THEATRICAL NOTES

The Great Santell.

The Santell All Star company that comes to the Kentucky for 3 nights and Saturday matinee will undoubtedly prove to be one of the best attractions of the season. The Evansville Courier has the following to say about the show:

The great Santell and his all star vaudeville company appeared at the Grand yesterday to large audiences, both matinee and night. The company is indeed an excellent one, in fact, much better than the usual vaudeville shows. There is not a poor act in the entire program.

Santell is a great performer and in his line of work he has no peer. He is a magnificent specimen of manhood. His athletic posing and feats of strength were roundly applauded. The Leningier trio of acrobats, Cameron & Toledo, Robeson & Reath, Mabel Gage and Master Richard are all stars in their line and the most pleasing and clever act on the program were Holmes and Holilton in their quaint Yankee sketch, "Looking for Betsy." They are not only good actors, but clever singers and dancers. Miss Cecil May, in her strange and weird act called "Sombeneby," created a profound impression, her rapid and accurate answer to questions asked by many in the audience was marvelous. The company is one of the best seen in Evansville for many seasons and lovers of vaudeville—that is vaudeville—cannot complain about the attraction that was selected to open the season at the Grand.

Hegenbeck & Wallace.

A large number of the difficult acts seen with the modern circus are in danger of not being appreciated, because of the ease with which they are performed. One of the chief difficulties that confront a manager of a big circus like the Carl Hegenbeck & Great Wallace combined shows, is the scarcity of acrobatic equestrians.

The way to the pinnacle of fame in a circus ring is difficult and discouraging. Of the girls, who essay the feats of a clever rider, not one in a thousand succeeds, and only one in a hundred of those who succeed ever attains prominence. Prominent in the coterie of equestrian celebrities with the Hegenbeck & Wallace circus is Millie Ginnett. In point of poise, grace, dash and daring agility, her riding simply defies all description. Nothing she does looks difficult nor appears, indeed to require effort. She is secure and as much at home in her position on the heaving, bounding back of a galloping horse, as a society belle on a ball room floor. The cleverness of Miss Ginnett deceives the public and makes it look easy. Any spectator who attempts to imitate the work of this celebrity, will soon have such a delusion dispelled from his mind. The same thing may be said of all the performers with the Carl Hegenbeck & Wallace circus. Every act is so cleverly, carefully and quickly executed, that the danger of the act is not apparent, and this fact overcomes the sensational tendency which is distasteful to many.

The only fault with the Carl Hegenbeck and Great Wallace combined shows is that it has too much going on at the same time, but the arrangement of the apparatus, paraphernalia and seats, is such that every one can see a great deal more, and get more satisfaction out of its performance than out of the ordinary show.

This immense circus will exhibit in Paducah, Monday, September 16.

COKE FIEND.

Arouses Fire Department With Cry of Fire.

Discrediting excited declarations of a strange negro who appeared under the front windows of No. 4 fire station, Tenth and Jones streets, shortly after 10 o'clock last night.

Fireman Noah English ran to Twelfth and Jones streets to find the negro's statements, as he suspected, the result of coke fumes. The negro awakened firemen crying "fire," and when asked where it was, stated Twelfth and Jones streets. Being only a short distance, the firemen did not take out the hose wagon, seeing no light or indications of a fire. Patrolmen were notified of the false alarm but failed to catch the negro.

AN OLD SAYING.

Showing How Cause and Effect Are Never Far Removed.

It is an old saying "Where there's honey there's bees"—not less true is one which science has coined more recently, "Where there's Dandruff there's germs"—and to push the inference still further we may truly say "Where there's Dandruff cured Newbro's Herpicide has been at work."

The reason of Herpicide's isolation as a genuine cure for Dandruff lies in the fact that it attacks and destroys the root of the whole trouble—a parasitic germ which feeds upon the material which nourishes the hair follicle.

Other so-called remedies are not directed at this true cause of the disease.

AMERICANS

WIN FIRST VICTORY AT HAGUE CONFERENCE.

Force Shall Be Used No Longer by Nations to Collect International Claims.

The Hague, Sept. 5.—The first real victory for the American delegation at the peace conference was won today. After a gallant campaign Gen. Porter secured acceptance by committee of the proposal that force shall not be used to aid in the collection of unjust money claims. The Swiss delegation alone stood out against the proposition.

General Porter is receiving congratulations on all sides. Almost unanimous acceptance in the full session must follow the vote taken today in committee.

This removes from the war area most of the questions likely to involve Europe and America in conflict. The victory also brightens the prospect for all the American proposals.

Sculptor Mixed Ships.

Criticism is made of the design which Sculptor A. Mercie, of Paris, is making for the Francis Scott Key monument, which is to be erected for its historical inaccuracy.

The idea of the sculptor was evidently to represent Key when he was looking anxiously from down the Patuxent river to see whether the star-spangled banner was still floating over Fort Mifflin after a terrific all-night bombardment, but an error is made in representing Key on the prow of an English warship.

According to the most authentic account of the famous incident of the writing of the national anthem, which is given in a letter by Chief Justice Roger B. Taney, who was Key's brother-in-law, Key was on board a little Baltimore boat on which as is well known, he had gone down the bay to try to secure the release of Doctor Beane, of Upper Marlboro, who had been captured by the British. As the British were intending an attack upon Baltimore, they detained Mr. Key and those with him, on a British frigate, but on the day before the bombardment placed them on their own little boat with a guard—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

He Revised It.

"Your story possesses merit," wrote the kindly magazine editor in returning a manuscript to a struggling young author of Washington, but you have embellished it with too much description, atmosphere and other irrelevant matter. What we want is a story setting out the simple facts—facts, just plain facts. If you will revise your story according to our idea, we will be glad to pay you $25 for it."

A few days later the editor got the following from the struggling young author of Washington:

"Herewith revised story. Please send check by return mail, as I need the money." And this was the story as rewritten:

"Jonas loved Eliza, but he was poor and wealthy papa kicked. Jonas went into Wall street and made a million, bankrupting papa. Then Eliza went fishing, fell off a log into the mill pond and Jonas fished her out. Papa relented and borrowed a hundred thousand from Jonas. Marriage"—Washington Post.

HIGH CLASS

FOREIGN FAMILIES

Are Only Ones Sought by Immigration Association.

Secretary Coons, Contradicts, Misapprehension That Foreign Rif-Raf Will Be Brought Here.

LABOR IS NOT AFFECTED.

"There seems to be a great misapprehension in regard to the immigration movement in western Kentucky. Some of the farmers have the erroneous idea that it is the intention of the association to bring in the 'undesirable citizen,' or the riff-raff from abroad, while others seem to think that the association's work will effect labor conditions," remarked Secretary D. W. Coons this morning.

"Nothing could be more absurd. The association is striving to secure high-class, self-supporting German-Austrian families, who desire to engage in farming truck gardening and fruit raising. A number of opportunities have come up to locate or bring in undesirable people, and they have been rejected, and under no circumstances will the association encourage or assist in locating any family in western Kentucky, except those who come under the above head, of desirable high class Germans, Austrians, or the best class of citizens from the northwestern part of this country, many of whom are seeking homes in a more desirable climate than they find up north."

"The details of this work will be fully explained at the convention and all men, whether farmer, business man, mechanic or laborer, will be made to see clearly that the immigration association proposes only that which means, if successful, the benefit of all people in this section of the country and an injury to no one."

Wickliffe Delegates.

Mayor H. Berbling, of Wickliffe, Ky., has appointed a substantial number of delegates to the Immigration and Good Roads Convention and promises a large and enthusiastic delegation from Wickliffe. They are greatly interested in interurban lines and immigration in that section of the country and will encourage all the efforts the association is making.

Work Is Explained.

The Immigration and Good Roads association are today mailing out over 1,000 pieces of mail matter in reference to the convention to be held September 6th and 27th, and this work will be followed up as rapidly as matter can be prepared, so that there will be little excuse for all men to not clearly understand the objects of the convention, and that they are invited and urged to attend same as delegates and co-operate in trying to do good.

BREATHITT IN CALLOWAY.

Will Speak at Murray September 20th.

Murray, Ky., Sept. 5.—Judge James Breathitt, Republican nominee for attorney general, will speak here September 20. Judge Breathitt is very popular in Calloway county, having served as circuit judge in this district and in his last race for the position against Thomas H. Cook, a home man he cut down the big Democratic majority in the county less than half. His friends here expect him to carry his old time vote for the entire ticket at the coming election.

The lofty work often fails to the why in spirit.

CRIMINOLOGISTS

HOLD INTERESTING MEETING AMONG THEMSELVES.

Remarkable Congress in Session in Mining Community in Staffordshire.

London, Sept. 5.—To the season's plentiful crop of congresses of Esperantists, Pacificists, Zionists and socialists, and such are now added the impromptu congress of criminologists gathered in a mining village of Staffordshire, England. These students of psychology are headed by Conan Doyle and are drawn there by a succession of atrocities, which for sensational mystification can be compared only to "Jack the Ripper" murders. The present instance of crime is cattle maiming, but the circumstances are such that the press are treating it in vastly greater detail than if it were a human murder story. The extraordinary crime extends as far back as 1903, when the neighborhood about Wyrley was shocked by a succession of cases where valuable horses and cows were stabbed always in the same manner and always at night, and always, apparently, with the same instrument. Despite offers of reward and reinforcements the plain clothes police were unable to catch any one red handed.

Young Edalji Is Convicted.

Young Edalji was convicted on circumstantial evidence that he had been near a field the night when a pony was stabbed. He was sentenced to prison.

The outrages continued after his conviction and the action by his lawyers caused inquiry by A. Conan Doyle and others. This resulted in his release after serving a three years' term. No compensation was paid by the government, however, it holding he was implicated in the anonymous letter writing which was a feature of the case and in that way helped to bring punishment upon himself.

This week he is living in Yarmouth, 100 miles away from the scene of the stabbing, but in the same field where the previous maiming occurred two valuable horses were stabbed in the dark hours of Wednesday morning and this morning another was stabbed in Walsall.

This has brought the assembled criminologists to the highest pitch of excitement. Conan Doyle declares he knows who the young miscreant is and that he is a monomaniac, but the police rather resent Doyle's intervention on another theory that the cattle maimer is a species of Jekyll and Hyde and that he is one of the respected residents of the neighborhood. It is claimed this man is a prosperous citizen who in maniacal moments destroys cattle in a particular way, always stabbing them with a long sharp knife.

George Sims and Doyle Agree.

Sims, known as a writer of criminal cases, agrees with Doyle that a young madman is the perpetrator, and his mania is a sort of blood lust confined to animals. Like all madmen, says Sims, he has periods of activity and of quiescence.

Like a "ripper," this man always kills with identical circumstances. The most amazing theory of all comes from a gentleman who arrived from a long distance. He declares he has studied the case exhaustively and knows the culprit is a controlled ape," acting under the hypnotic influence of somebody in Birmingham. It is notable that Edalji gets little sympathy from Staffordshire villagers.

More Outrages in Staffordshire.

Great excitement extended throughout Staffordshire today by another maiming outrage. This making the second in Great Wyrley district this week.

When the first one took place, at the beginning of the week, the district filled up with amateur detectives, hoping to secure the reward of $250 offered for the apprehension of the criminal. During this time the criminal lay low, but now the coast is relatively clear again he perpetrates fresh outrages. Doyle's attention has been called to the complaint made by the Staffordshire police that they have not been made acquainted with his theories regarding to criminal.

Sir Arthur was requested to write to the chief constable and give him all the information in his power and name the suspect.

RAILROAD NOTES

Flint Fields, foreman of the Princeton Illinois Central wrecking crew, is in Paducah today on business. He states that it is still hard to secure a suitable residence in Princeton for the wrecking crew.

Mr. Fred Flanagan, the well known Illinois Central machinist, will leave tonight for his home in Omaha, Neb. He has been ill of fever and will remain off duty about one month or until he is entirely well.

One-half the local Illinois Central depot platform will be finished this week. Bricklayers are busy today laying the west side, and now that all fillers are in and clinders and sand has been spread, the work can progress with more rapidity.

W. W. Shoffner, night watchman in the local Illinois Central shops and work yards, has resigned and gone to work on night duty as hostler in the round house. He has been succeeded by Mr. R. E. Vance.

Traffic in local Illinois Central shop yards was blocked this morning from 7 o'clock until nearly noon by two overturned box cars. While a yard engine switched them, a frog became defective, one car taking one track and the second another. They turned over and one loaded with crosties was completely wrecked. The second car was loaded with straw and was damaged but slightly.

Ida Williams, colored, who is serving a 20 day jail sentence for sleeping in a box car, bears the distinction of being the first woman arrested in the local yards for this offense during the nine years' service of Special Policeman Dick Tolbert. Tolbert was coming on duty when he heard snores. They came from a box car side tracked near Tennessee street on the Louisville lead. An investigation revealed the woman sleeping soundly on the hard floor, a beer can under her head. Indications are that she was overcome by the stimulant before she reached home.

OYSTER FAMINE A BASE RUMOR.

Government Officials Declare There Is No Danger This Year.

Washington, Sept. 5.—There is no occasion for those of the delicate palate to grow apprehensive over reports now in circulation of an oyster famine. At the bureau of fisheries the officials do not credit the rumors. While they have at present no means to measure definitely the oyster crop that will be harvested during the next six months, they do not look for a famine or a greater shortage than has marked recent years. The commission is working hard to prevent the extinction of the oyster.

Going After Caldwell.

Detective T. J. Moore has gone to St. Louis after Pete Caldwell colored, wanted here for housebreaking. The requisition papers arrived in St. Louis yesterday.

TOWN MARSHAL

ON TRIAL FOR MURDER AT FULTON.

Two Days of Court's Time Taken Up in Effort to Secure Jury.

Fulton, Ky., Sept. 5.—The past two days of the Fulton circuit court has been taken up with selecting a jury in the Tom Pickett murder case. Out of 35 men Tuesday only one juror was accepted, and out of 50 men yesterday only eight jurors were accepted. Tom Pickett while acting as special marshal at Hickman during the holidays, hit Ed Newton a fatal blow with his club in a pool room in Hickman last Christmas Eve night while attempting to arrest him, and the young man died a few hours later from the effects of the blow. At the time of the killing great excitement prevailed over the affair and has been talked of ever since, many expressing opinions.

TAKES OUT FREAK LIFE POLICY

Farmer Insure for Ten Children—All Names Begin With "R."

Petersburg, Ind., Sept. 5.—A record in the way of the number of beneficiaries named in a life insurance policy was made today when Emory Willis, a farmer living four miles west of here, took out a policy in favor of his ten children, all of whose names begin with "R." and were recorded as follows: Rezen, Rufus, Ruth, Russia, Roso, Robert, Roosevelt, Ralph, Righteous and Roxey.

The Wishing Habit.

The evil of wishing is that it generally stops the doing. If I say to you today, "I wish I had more to offer you in this article," I have stopped my progress toward writing you a better article next time. I have made my little apology, I feel that I am quits with the cosmos and have not only done well, but I have stated that I wish I could do better. In training children you will find it salutary, and not at all impossible to make it a rule that they should drop the words "I wish" out of their vocabulary. All helpless things do too much wishing of this sort. The only kind of wishing that is worth anything is externalized or expressed wishing—in short, doing.

If a man is filled with what we call sin, the short cut for him is to express it. Only thus can he test and know whether he wishes to be an evildoer. He may never learn in this life the beauty of keeping with the law and traveling the up-slope of the circle; and his being forced to accept your opinion on this should not help his soul, though in the matter of over acts as all recognize its necessity as a protection for society.

I have a friend who is an extremist in this matter and who horrified a separate breakfast table of persons by announcing that if a man felt homicidal she thought the sooner he went and killed somebody and got that nasty murder out of his heart and into his acts, the better off he would be. Society cannot exactly permit him to externalize for the good of his own soul to that extent. Yet such a man, when he stood upon the gallows with the rope around his neck, would be nearer perfection than the same man with his tendencies thwarted, acting as Sunday school superintendent.—Nautilus.

He—"So you persist in breaking off the engagement?" She—"Most decidedly. What do you take me for?" He—"Oh, about 40. Better think it over; it may be your last chance."—Harper's Weekly.

What Do They Mean by the Expression General Appearance?

"General appearance" is a broad term, but in the sense employed in the horse show program, some will declare it is synonymous with the word lady. At any rate, anybody knows that in sizing up the "general appearance" of an outfit on the street, a good judge will allow the lady in the rig to cut considerable figure in his estimate of its appearance.

This is apropos of two special features in the horse show this season. Prizes are offered for the best turnout for a lady and the best two seat carriage outfit, the horse and equipment to count for 50 per cent and "general appearance" 50 per cent. Now, after the horse and equipment are specifically mentioned, what is there left for "general appearance" but the fair driver?

Combination horses, the class that forms a large part of the fancy stock in this section, will be recognized in a substantial manner at the show, September 24, 25, 26, and 27, as it is the purpose of the directors to encourage the breeding and owning of fine animals.

PLAY WAR IS DEADLY AS REAL

Austrian Troops Suffer Severely from Marching in Hot Weather.

Vienna, Sept. 5.—The long list of casualties among the troops engaged in the yearly army maneuvers, now in progress in the neighborhood of Wiener-Neustadt, has aroused widespread public indignation and concern. Ten deaths from exhaustion already have been reported, and hundreds of men have been prostrated. In the Twenty-fifth regiment of infantry alone 150 prostrations have been reported. The overworking of the troops in the excessive heat is responsible.

OUTWITTED HER PARENTS.

Young Lover Steals Vehicle and Also a Bride.

Cairo, Ill., Sept. 5.—In order that he might steal his sweetheart away from her watchful parents, Edwin Irvin, of this city stole horse and buggy at a barbecue, near Cairo last night, and with Miss Grace Parker, drove to Thebes and took a train for Cape Girardeau, Mo., where they are supposed to have been married. Irvin had known Miss Parker only a few days, but his attentions toward her had been so marked that when her parents learned that he was to attend the picnic and barbecue they forbade her to attend. Irvin learned that she was at home several miles distant, and decided to win her in spite of parental objections. Accordingly he took a horse and buggy belonging to Andrew Milton and drove to her home. When Mr. and Mrs. Parker returned from the picnic they found a note from their daughter telling them that she had decided to elope with Irvin. Not until today was it learned that the couple had gone to Missouri. Irvin turned the horse loose at Tamm's, and it was returned to the owner. He declares that he will have Irvin arrested for stealing his buggy and Parker declares he will have him arrested for stealing his daughter.

LONG DROUTH AT LAST BROKEN

Rains in the East and South
Save Crops.

Continued Dry Spell Has Already Caused Heavy Damage To Many Crops.

FRUIT SUFFERED HEAVILY.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 5.—With the breaking of the drouth by the rains of the last three days the most serious condition that has confronted the farmers of the eastern and southern parts of the United States in years has passed away.

The lack of rain at one time promised to be a very serious calamity.
As it is it has entailed a loss to farmers, fruit growers and others of a great many million dollars. But for the rain which began to sweep eastward on Monday night and fell in copious showers throughout the entire country from the Mississippi valley to the Atlantic coast and from Florida to the gulf, hundreds of thousands of men would have been practically ruined.

The drouth was one of the mos-tensive and severe in recent years.
It was particularly disastrous throughout New England, New York,
Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware,
Maryland, West Virginia, Virginia,
North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Florida, Tennessee,
Kentucky, Mississippi, Louisiana,
Arkansas, Oklahoma and Texas.

The fruit crop of all the eastern and southern states suffered very heavily and in numerous sections a complete failure was threatened. The loss in the berry and small fruit crop alone in eastern states has been estimated at millions of dollars, attributed to the drouth. Pastures were dried up and forage for livestock began to die from lack of moisture.

The first signs of the breaking of the drouth came with rains on August 30 and 31 in Eastern Nebraska, the northern part of Illinois, Indiana and western Ohio, and portions of Texas.

There were scattered storms
throughout the east on September 1 and the drouth began to be really broken on September 2, Labor day.
The rain on that day fell on points of northern Texas and extended to portions of Missouri, Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Indian Territory,
Kentucky, Tennessee, Alabama, Ohio,
North Carolina, South Carolina, West
Virginia, Virginia, Maryland, Delaware, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and all of New England.

Conditions are said to indicate further rains throughout the east.

S.S.S. HEALS OLD SORES

An old sore or ulcer is only a symptom, an outlet for the impurities and poisons which are in the blood, and as long as this vital fluid remains in this impure, contaminated state the place will never heal. The application of salves, washes, powders, etc., may cause the spot to scab over, but a fresh outpouring of diseased matter from the blood starts it again, and thus it goes on, gradually growing worse and slowly affecting the entire health of the sufferer. There are many ways in which the blood becomes contaminated and poisoned. A long spell of sickness breeds disease germs in the system, the failure of the eliminative members to remove the refuse and waste matter of the body, the excessive use of mineral medicines in certain diseases, all infect the blood with morbid matter and germs which sooner or later is manifested by a sore that refuses to heal. Persons with inherited blood taint are very apt to be afflicted with sores and ulcers. The sore may lie dormant during young, vigorous life, but when middle age is reached or passed and the natural energies begin to grow weaker, the tissues in some weak point break down and a chronic sore is formed and kept open by the constant drainage of impure matter from the blood. If the cause is not removed, the sore will continue to grow worse by eating deeper into the flesh, festering, discharging, and slowly undermining the constitution. S. S. S. heals old sores by going down to the very bottom of the trouble, driving out the impurities and building up the entire circulation. When S. S. S. has removed the cause the blood becomes rich and healthy, the sore begins to heal, new flesh is formed, and soon the place is cured. Do not depend on external applications, which do not reach the blood, but begin in the use of S. S. S. and remove the cause, and then the sore must heal. Book on Sores and Ulcers and medical advice free. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

A Mansfield Story.

In 1898, after a performance of horses so popular in army circles, Cyrano de Bergerac, Israel Zangwill, the novelist, essayist and critic, visited Mansfield behind the scenes. "Do you like my interpretation of Cyrano?" asked the actor. Mr. Zangwill's answer was honest. "You are really a great actor," he said. "In the first acts you are admirable—unsurpassable. But you do not hold the mirror up to nature in the last acts." "What?" said Mansfield, furiously. Do you mean that, sir?" "Most assuredly I do. Permit me to tell you, sir, Coquelin in the closing scenes is more artistic, more consistent than you." Mr. Mansfield, sensitive about himself and about the American stage, defended both furiously. "Coquelin," he said, "Coquelin! Why, we can give Coquelin, Irving, and your so-called European stars points they never heard about. You are to compare my Cyrano, the result of months of arduous study, to that of Coquelin?" Whereupon he went into his dressing room without bidding the novelist good night.

Horses For the Army.

Western horse breeders may find an interesting hint in the recent report of Gen. A. W. Greely, in which he calls attention to the increasing difficulty experienced by army officials in securing suitable horses for the American cavalry and artillery service. The general goes into detail in reviewing the change that has been effected in the number and character of horses raised in America. He shows that some twenty years ago, with the introduction of the trolley in displacing the horse-drawn street car, the price of horses declined radically and immediately thereafter a change was noticed in the character of the horses raised for sale. Instead of the drivers, riding horses, roadsters and the like, tough breeders turned their attention to raising heavy draught horses, for use on the farms and in heavy hauling. The result, according to Gen. Greely, has been the disappearance of the horses for cavalry and field artillery service. Gen. Greely's report is confirmed by the experience of an officer of the German army who had been in this country for some months looking for horses for the Kaiser's cavalry. He has declared that after a tour of Kentucky and other horse breeding states, he is unable to secure anything like the number or kind of horses he wants. Within the last five years, according to Gen. Greely, the price of horses has advanced rapidly and the supply is now entirely inadequate. He asserts that the army is already embarrassed by its difficulty in securing the kind of horses needed for the equipment of the cavalry and that even the fancy prices now being offered, from $125 to $200, fails to relieve the situation. His report suggests that horse breeders of the west may profit by breeding a class of horses that will meet the necessities of the situation.—Omaha Be.

ARABS ROUTED BY FRENCH SOLDIERS

Five Hundred Dead on Field at Casa Blanca

Detachment Attacked From Ambush Secure Reinforcements and Repulse Charge.

MOORS ARE NOT DISCOURAGED.

Casa Blanca, Sept. 5.—After severe fighting during which four French soldiers were wounded the Arabs were repulsed today with heavy losses. The tribesmen fought with fanatical bravery and charged time and again only to be driven back.

The French used their artillery with deadly effect and literally mowed down the Arabs. The fighting was begun by the latter, who tried to ambush a reconnoitering party sent out by General Drude. The French discovered the movement in time to avoid a surprise and defended themselves till they were reinforced. They repelled repeated charges till they were joined by five companies of infantry and two batteries of artillery. Then the French under cover of a heavy cannonading, charged in turn. This movement was made with great dash and gallantry and was entirely successful. The Arabs were driven back with great loss, and it is stated that they left hundreds of dead on the field. The exact number is not known.

During the fighting shells could be seen bursting repeatedly among the Arab horsemen and many riderless steeds were observed from the French lines. Good work was done also today by the Spahis, African hussars and irregular Algerian cavalry. They came up before the fighting was over and joined in one of the brilliant charges of the day. General Drude speaks in high praise of their work.

So far as can be learned the Moors are by no means discouraged as yet by their repeated defeats, but are still gathering and another attack from them is expected. They seem to be in great numbers. All are splendid horsemen and their bravery has excited the admiration of the French officers and men alike. They literally throw their lives away.

Word comes from Tangier that the American missionaries have been compelled to leave the country. Messrs. Clinton, Reid and Enver had decided to remain at Fez after the Europeans had gone and this aroused the suspicions of the natives, who concluded that they must be French spies. Owing to the intense hatred of the Moors for everything that is French the situation became so menacing that the Americans were forced for their safety, to flee, and are now said to be on their way to the coast preparatory to getting out of the country temporarily. While nothing has as yet been heard from them direct, word of their arrival at Tangier is expected soon. It is possible that they may have reached Ocasar Oguer, where they would be in safety. Communication with the interior of the country has been entirely cut off and this adds to the anxiety so far as the safety of the Americans is concerned. All white men are now regarded with hostility by the tribesmen, who think all but natives are friendly to or in league with the French.

The laws governing these reductions are enactments of the recent legislature and are in effect by agreement pending a test of their constitutionality in the federal courts.

PLAN TO AID SOUTH TO SECURE IMMIGRANTS.

Baron Von Jills, director of the North German Lloyd steamship of Bremen, is in Washington and has been in conference with Commissioner Sargent, of the bureau of immigration relative to the establishment of a permanent steamship line to Charleston and elsewhere in the south. It is intended that this line of ships shall run from Mediterranean ports. He went carefully over the whole situation with Commissioner Sargent, and when seen in regard to his interview was extremely optimistic over the outlook.

Baron Von Jills leaves Monday morning for Charleston, where he will confer with leading citizens there, and from which point he will make trips elsewhere into the state and into the south, visiting Memphis, New Orleans, Houston and Galveston for the purpose of informing himself upon the needs of immigration.

In addition to being director of the North German Lloyd company, Baron Von Jills is also a director in a number of other steamship companies and of the International Transportation company. He it was who had the Wilkesing sent to Charleston.—Houston Post.

Tarrytown, N. Y., Sept. 5.—Half a dozen "tree doctors" are at work at John D. Rockefeller's place at Poconico Hills, treating trees for the purpose of preventing decay. Many of the trees that indicate an age of 200 years or more Mr. Rockefeller is especially anxious to preserve. He learned that there were such individuals as "tree doctors," and he immediately sent for them.

ASSASSINATION

ARE REPORTED AT CASA BLANCA FROM FEZ.

Tazzi Brothers and Abdelkrim Ben Sliman Are Killed By Partisans There.

Casa Blanca, Sept. 5.—Letters received here from Fez declared that the Tazzi brothers, Abdelkrim, Ben Sliman, the Moroccan foreign minister, and Ganam, the second representative at Tangier, have been assassinated by partisans of the calid of Mechur, the official who introduces ambassadors to the court of the sultan.

The Tazzi brothers exercised almost complete domination over the sultan and to them is attributed the ruin of the empire. It is alleged that they sought only their personal aggrandizement. Their fortune is counted by millions, and it is said to be sufficient to pay the entire debt of Morocco.

Some time ago the calid of Mechur was on the point of killing the Tazzi brothers in the presence of the sultan. The name of the calid is Driss Ben Aich, and he is a descendant of the Bujaris, one of the four tribes which founded the Moroccan monarchy.

Abdelkrim Ben Sliman was a perfect type of the cunning diplomat. He recently sent his condolences to the French charge d'affaires at Tangier regarding the massacre of Europeans at Casa Blanca. Ganam was intensely anti-European. He recently was accused of complicity in an illegal sale of government land at Tangier.

SIPPING AWAY.

Oh, dear! Oh dear!
This fine new year
Is more'n half gone
Already.
I'll bet a dime
The sands of time
Are running
Pretty steady.

It seems to be
But two or three
Or four weeks since
We waited
To greet with cheer
Another year
Whose coming had
Been slated.

Oh, me! Oh, my!
How time does fly,
Just like a roll
Of money.
Or like, again,
The chauffeur when
The cops are getting Funny.

Who would have said
To look ahead,
It would be summer
Weather
E'er time we found
To look around
And pull ourselves
Together?

Alas! Alas!
How time does pass—
One new year just Departed.
And it will soon
Be time to get
More resolutions
Started.

CHANGE OF PLANS FOR PHILIPPINES

Taft will Lay Before Roosevelt on Return.

Necessary To Keep Magoon in Cuba, So Insular Governor Will Be Another.

GENERAL SMITH WOULD LEAVE

Washington, Sept. 5.—On the return of Secretary Taft from the Philippines to which he is going now he will lay before President Roosevelt plans for changes in the administration of the islands.

Nearly two years ago Judge Magoon was selected as vice governor of the Philippines and really was on the way to Manila when President Roosevelt and Secretary Taft decided, on account of the serious situation in Cuba, to make him the provisional governor of that island. Even at that time it was expected that Judge Magoon's service in Cuba would be only temporary, and that he would be able in a short time to proceed to Manila to undertake the duties of vice governor.

Cuban Service Valuable.

His service in Cuba was so valuable, however, and the developments of the Cuban situation so unexpected, that it finally was determined to keep him at Havana and make other provision for the vice governorship of the Philippines.

It was proposed to appoint Judge Magoon governor of the Philippines as soon as he could familiarize himself with the administrative details of the island government, but as the provisional government of Cuba will be continued yet for an indefinite time, it is not likely that Judge Magoon will go to Manila at all.

It, therefore, is necessary to arrange the Philippine government anew and this will be done by Secretary Taft, possibly while he is in Manila.

Wishes to Leave Islands.

General James F. Smith, of California, is now the governor of the Philippines, but it is understood that he has no desire to remain in the islands. The plan already tentatively agreed upon is to appoint Judge Taft, of the supreme court of the islands, as vice governor and subsequently to name him as governor to succeed General Smith. Governor Smith is popular with all classes of Filipinos—far more so than was his predecessor, General Luke Wright, and that was a particular reason for his appointment. He wishes, however, to return to California, and it is thought that he will be appointed to one of the California judgeships soon after his successor as governor of the Philippines is chosen.

LUNATIC KILLS TWO

SALVATION ARMY OFFICER GAVE BATTLE IN PRISON.

Fire Hose Turned On Crazy Man Before He Was Subdued.

Connersville, Ind., Sept. 5.—Harry Robinson, a Salvation Army member immediately after being committed to jail today as insane, killed Austin Ford, and brutally assaulted Charles Ring, and two other prisoners.

When he was first committed to jail he was allowed to walk in the corridor. Suddenly he became violent and attacked Ford and Ring, knocking both down. Ring struggled to his feet, ran to his cell and locked his door.

Robinson turned back and beat Ford with his fists, only leaving him to return with iron implements and lamps, with which he beat Ford to death.

The cries of the other prisoners aroused attention and Police Chief Barker and two officers started into the jail.

The lunatic made a rush at the officers, who were at a disadvantage, as they were entering the corridor through a narrow passage, and were driven back by Robinson, who hurled missiles at them. Other officers then entered the jail and several wild shots were fired in the hope of frightening the insane man, but they only served to make him more furious.

Then the fire hose was turned on the crazed man and the police, finally subdued him after a furious battle.

PORTER'S ARGUMENT

OVERCAME ALL OBJECTIONS FROM COMMITTEE.

His Proposal For Collection of Contractual Debts Almost Unanimously Approved.

The Hague, Sept. 5.—Gen. Horace Porter, of the American delegation, led his proposal for the collection of contractual debts to practically unanimous approval today by the committee of examination, and at the conclusion of the meeting he was the recipient of many congratulations upon the success of his efforts. The importance of this American proposition, it is pointed out, lies in the principle which it establishes rather than in its practical application, which may be very seldom.

General Porter met all the objections raised with ready argument, and finally brought all the countries represented, debtor as well as creditor countries, into line, with the single exception of Switzerland, which is neither a debtor nor a creditor. There is reason to believe, however, that even the Swiss government will sign the convention, with reserve regarding the matter of jurisdiction.

Dr. Drago, while he cast Argentina's vote in favor of General Porter's proposal, for the reason that it establishes obligatory arbitration in matters relating to contractual debts, declared Argentina maintained her original reserve on the subject. Only 13 countries, including Brazil, Mexico and Argentina, were represented on the committee of examination, and General Porter's proposition, as it has been modified, must be submitted for approval to a plenary sitting of the committee of arbitration, upon which all the nations are represented.

The Austro-Hungarian proposal in the matter of obligatory arbitration was practically wrecked by today's vote, as the majority in favor thereof was smaller than that which supported the British proposition on the same subject. There probably will be a plenary sitting of the entire conference in September.

At the Kentucky Tonight.

At the Kentucky theater tonight the Santell company, Miss May, the mind reader, will mystify our local people. Miss May is the only mind reader in the world who has been booked to play the Majestic theater, Chicago, after Anna Eva Fay's remarkable run of 15 weeks in that city.

As a clairvoyant Miss May has appeared in all the large cities of the world. Her home is in Calcutta, India, where she was brought up in the care of a well known Yogi priest named Deoran Marousaran. At the age of 18 she began giving public seances and started England by appearing before royalty and demonstrating her powers. Under heavy contract Miss May came to America.

RIVER NEWS

This morning's reading of the gauge showed the river had gone down 0.7 and bringing the wharfbat that much closer to the shore. The gauge now reads 9.1. Rivermen are at a loss to account for the fall, more than the season of low water has come and the river will not rise materially until the fall rises.

With a good start for the trip down the river to Cairo the Dick Fowle pulled out this morning at 8 o'clock. Yesterday was a big day for the packet, and she did not get here until near 11 o'clock.

The Egan left today for Caseyville with a tow of empty barges from the fleet of the West Kentucky Coal company.

The W. W. O'Neil is due to pass down the river with a tow of coal for the south.

The Bob Dudley is in from Nashville and she received freight all day for the trip out this evening.

The Savannah was due to arrive from the Tennessee river today. Nothing had been received at the wharf when she would arrive. The Sallito from St. Louis is due this evening en route to the Tennessee river.

The Martha H. Hennen was lowered into the water early this morning at the dry docks and the A. D. Allen took her place. Business is brisk at the docks and a large force of workmen is employed.

The Gate City will be inspected tomorrow by the inspectors, who arrived last night from Nashville.

The Inverness arrived last night from the Tennessee river and was storing today preparatory to leaving on the return trip after ties for the Ayer & Lord Tie company.

A large transfer barge of the C. & E. I. railroad was taken out on the ways this morning for an overhaul. The barge is a large one and nearly fills up the ways. The barge came from Joppa.

Skiffs are being picked up down the river and restored to their owners. One large skiff of the Gate City has not been found. It was blown off the steamer during the storm.

The John S. Hopkins was the Evansville packet today and she came in with a good trip.

The Russell Lord and the Hosmer of the Ayer & Lord Tie company's fleet are waiting to be inspected. An effort was made to have them looked over today.

The Royal arrived on time today from Golconda with a good trip of passengers.

The Cowling made the regular trips today from Metropolis and the little packet brought a good trip of freight from the lower river.

One stage of the wharfbat has been raised and the big boat swung into the bank close enough for wagons to drive on the northern end. Wagons driving on and off one stage must necessarily give some confusion, but everything moves in fair order and all freight is unloaded on the boat. The boat is still about 100 feet down the river from the regular position, but by Saturday night it is promised the wharf will be in its natural order.

The workmen are lifting the southern stage now and the work is progressing well. As soon as this is gotten to the bank the work of moving the boat to the foot of Broadway will begin.

The City of Sallito arrived from the Tennessee river yesterday morning with 140,000 feet of lumber, 500 sacks of peanuts and cabin full of return people. She is receiving and registering passengers, to return this afternoon at 5 o'clock. Capt. Harry Crane in command and Capt. S. C. Baker, chief clerk. Globe-Democrat.

A suit has been filed against the Tennessee River Navigation company of Chattanooga for $1,000 damages, by Lewis Blackwell, on the ground that some one on the steamer John A. Patton, plying between Chattanooga and Paducah, killed his son, Van Blackwell and they threw the body into the river.

The Bettle Owen made her regular trip over the river this morning.

FORESTER SAYS LUMBER WILL NOT LAST 20 YEARS.

Sacramento, Cal., Sept. 5.—This was irrigation and conservation day at the national irrigation congress. A number of men prominent in the great work of irrigation were the speakers. A letter from Secretary Garfield was read regretting his inability to attend and speaking of the important work to be done.

The first discordant note rang through the proceedings today after Gifford Pinchot, government forester and personal representative of President Roosevelt, had delivered an address, in which he said that the lumber supply of the country would be exhausted inside of 20 years if nothing was done to protect the forests.

A delegate moved that in view of this statement it be the sense of the congress that all duties on timber be removed.

Pinchot was asked if he favored this suggestion. He replied, should the forestry service favor such a change, it would lose the support of the lumber interests, which interests own four-fifths of the forests of the country.

Delegate White Smith of California, referring to Pinchot's reply, said that the United States government was evidently afraid to stand forth in the interest of the poorer classes.

He favored the curtailment of the powers of the secretary of the interior and the secretary of agriculture. "Let the people know their rights," he said, "and not be governed by one man's will, even though he be president of the United States."

The motion was referred to the resolutions committee, which cut off further debate.

The congress sent a telegram of thanks to President Roosevelt for the "splendid message" from him, read by Gifford Pinchot, yesterday.

There is no good in lies, yet some men boast of their ability to tell good ones.

This speech will be the first of a series which he will deliver throughout the state, and especially in the western portion. Following the speech at Marion he will speak at Princeton, Benton, Kuttawa, Eddyville and other towns in this end of the state before going into the central and eastern sections.

The many friends of Judge Breathitt here hoped that he would deliver the opening speech of his campaign in this city, but he decided to wind up here instead.
